Probate Judge Diager last Friday appointed John S. Benson guardian of John Timblin, recently adjudged insane. Timblin has been confined in jail for several weeks past, but on the appointment of a guardian was released. Timblin, however, refused to have anything to do with Benson and of his own accord went back to jail, saying he preferred to stay with Sheriff Fisher. He was taken back and will be left to remain there until he takes a notion to leave.

Mr. C. W. Tetwiler has wilbd awn from the firm of L. B. Walker and Company, and has, we understand formed a co-partnership with Mr. Babcock in the general merchandise business. Mr. Tetwiler has been a member of the firm of Walker & Co., for several years, and has earned an enviable reputation as a most excellent mechanic; and we trust he may be as successful in this new enterprise, as he has proven himself in his trade.-Poplar Bluff Citizen.

Prof. Delmonto, assissted by his two young American wonders, Master Eddie and Willie, will appear at the Academy of Music tonight and to-morrow night, January 14th and 15th, in a performance of difficult feats. Especial attention is called to Master Eddie Randal, the Serpentine Wonder. This young man has traveled nearly all over the world, exciting universal wonder and admiration. The management promises an interesting and pleasing entertainment. Come.

Attorneys Edgar and Jordan went to De Soio last Friday for the purpose of arguing, before Judge Green, the question of letting John Turner, the west end murderer, out on bail, Mr. Edgar for the prisoner and Mr. Jordan for the state. Judge Green finally Crews refused to pay for "the fixtures" beagreed to accept bail, and placed the amount of the bond at $7,000. Who said we were not going to have any winter? The heaviest snowfall for many years, began Saturday night and continued through most of the day Sunday. It fell to the depth of 14 inches, and would have been much more had it not melted while falling. The streets were almost impassable; consequently there were no Sunday school or preaching at either of the churches. Something unusual for this place.

A gentleman remarked the other day, 'Every day seems like Sunday in Des Arc since the town has been incorporated and the saloon closed." There certainly has been quite an improvement in the peace and quite of our burg and hope it may continue.

ALL THE NEWS

That is what THE ST. LOUIS CHRONICLE contains, but not a line of word-padding. It is better than ever, and it has long been recognized as a leader. It has just spent $40,000 for two new lightning presses, stereotyping machinery, new type and building improvements. But it proposes to spend more. On and after October 11-12 an eight-page Saturday paper for city circulation, and an eight-page Sunday paper for country circulation, will be issued,

THE ST. LOUIS CHRONICLE is ever alert in THE ST. LOUIS CHRONICLE is ever alert in the interest of its readers. Are you one of them? If you are not you are liable, unless you reform, to miss many a treat. News is THE CHRONICLE'S strong point, but it is not weak in literature. Beginning October 18, a great serial novel, by M. Jules Mary, will begin. M. Mary is a second Victor Hugo, and Paradise Lost is the reigning French sensation. It has been translated for THE CHRONICLE. If you fail to read it you will be sorry.
